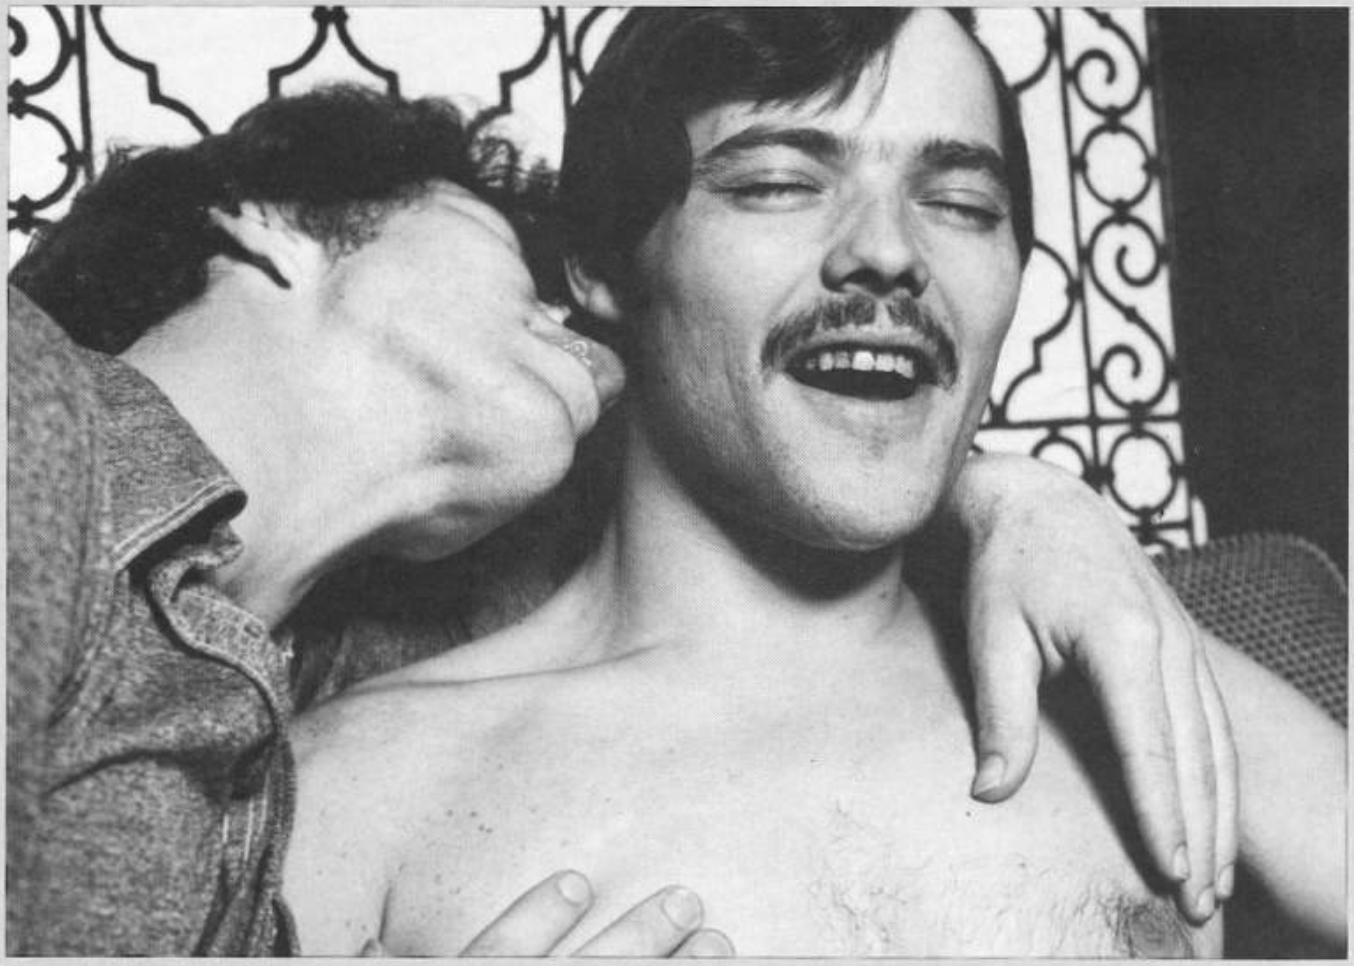
ORAL SEX

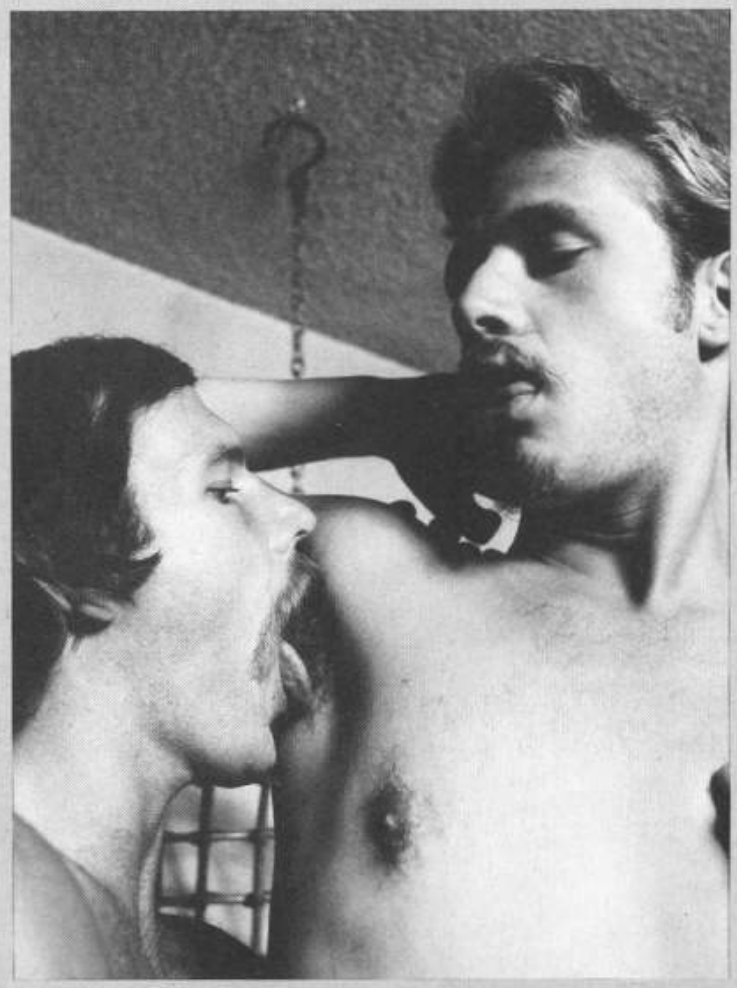
FOREPLAY

The preliminaries start with a passing glance. From then on it's up to your personal style. It can be a slow sensuous slide up his thigh until you reach a warm crotch, or a grab for a handful of hard cock. You're finally taking matters into your own hands.

Saliva glands start watering as tongues lick lips signaling the next stage . . . the kiss. Tentatively exploring each other or ramming in to dominate, it's as natural as breathing. Instincts take over as inhibitions fall away.

Sexual tension builds as the natural instincts expressed through the tongue demands more. In some, this is expressed in the exploration of his lovers body. The erogenous zones of the chest are ripe for primary attention. Nipples stand in erect attention as they await the spotlight. The aroma of the under-arms attracts some, others, the nape of the neck.





As cocks get harder and the pounding of hearts pulsate bodies, the urge and desire for "flesh on flesh" becomes unbearable. Slowly the rough jeans are slid down, impeded only by the throbbing erect cocks waiting for action. The shirts are discarded, while the saliva in the mouths gets hot and creamy in anticipation of the warmth and sweat the two bare chests will share.

Some prefer to stand, almost naked, with cocks entwined; teasing, playing and tempting. Others enjoy the initial slow pressure of cock and body on top of cock and body. In either position, vertical or horizontal, the man aromas, saliva and sweat from the two bodies merge and become one. The foreplay ends and the hot lust begins.

MUTUAL MASTURBATION

Grabbing another man's meat and jacking him off while he does the same to you, can be a truly gratifying experience. Only a man knows another man's true sexual desires. He has the strength to beat that cock, knows where and how to hold it, tease it, so you allow him complete control as he takes possession of your explosive muscle and plummets you into complete sexual oblivion.

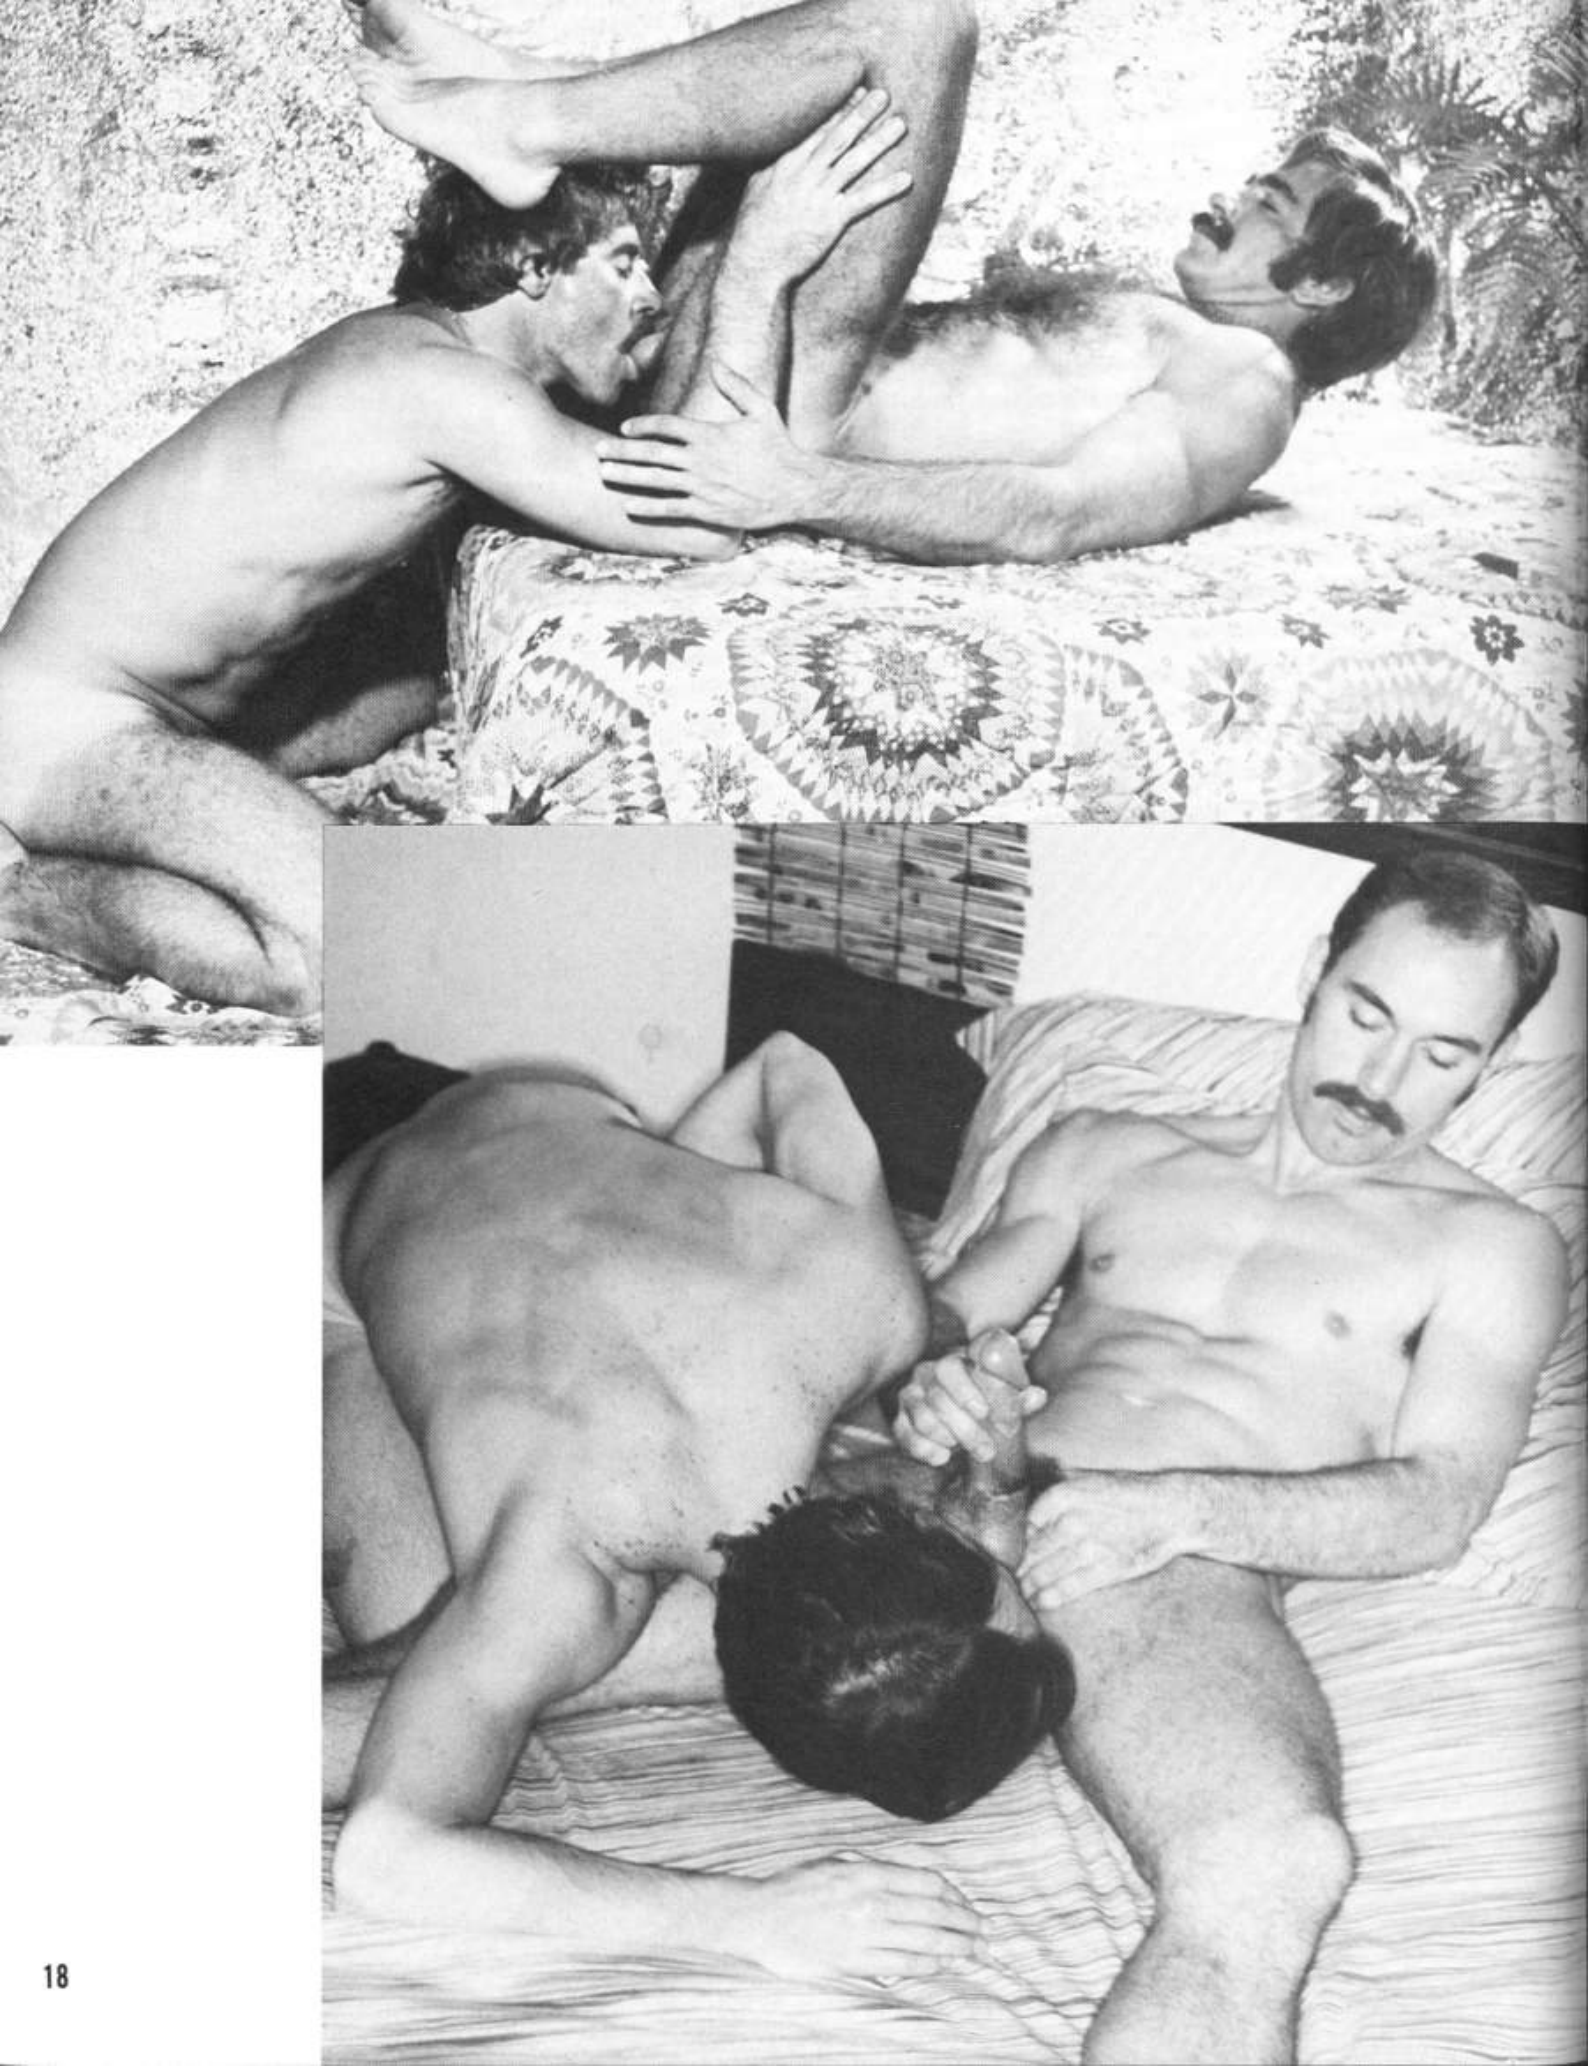
You and your partner feel each others cocks, pump them, caressing the big vein that carries the treat. Your eyes meet, the stroking pace quickens, you see each others nostrils flare as your saliva rolls out of your mouths, dripping down off your lips. He grabs your thick nipples and squeezes, and you his, while hands probe each others asses sticking one, two, three fingers up the dark passages, the jacking becomes maniacal, pulling and pushing until mutual sexual euphoria is finally reached.

The feeling of losing control and succumbing to your man, is in itself a sexual stimulation, but then, to have him taunt and tease you, make you squirm and beg by stopping his stroke a second before orgasm, then, the ultimate power takes form. He is KING, you pawn, grovelling for his mercy, wanting desperately to cum in wads, while he smiles and plays with you, loving and hating him at the same time. The fire in you burns as he catches glimmers of it in your eyes, your entire body becomes hot, your dick throbbing and boiling, nipples red and erect from heat, lava stirring inside you, until rage can hold itself in no longer and you shoot.

ORAL ACTION

Whether you're standing, sitting, laying down, or straddling over a hungry partner, cocksucking is a major part of the male sexual repertoire. It's what makes one man know and truly appreciate what turns on another. Many find this form of lovemaking to be quite sufficient.

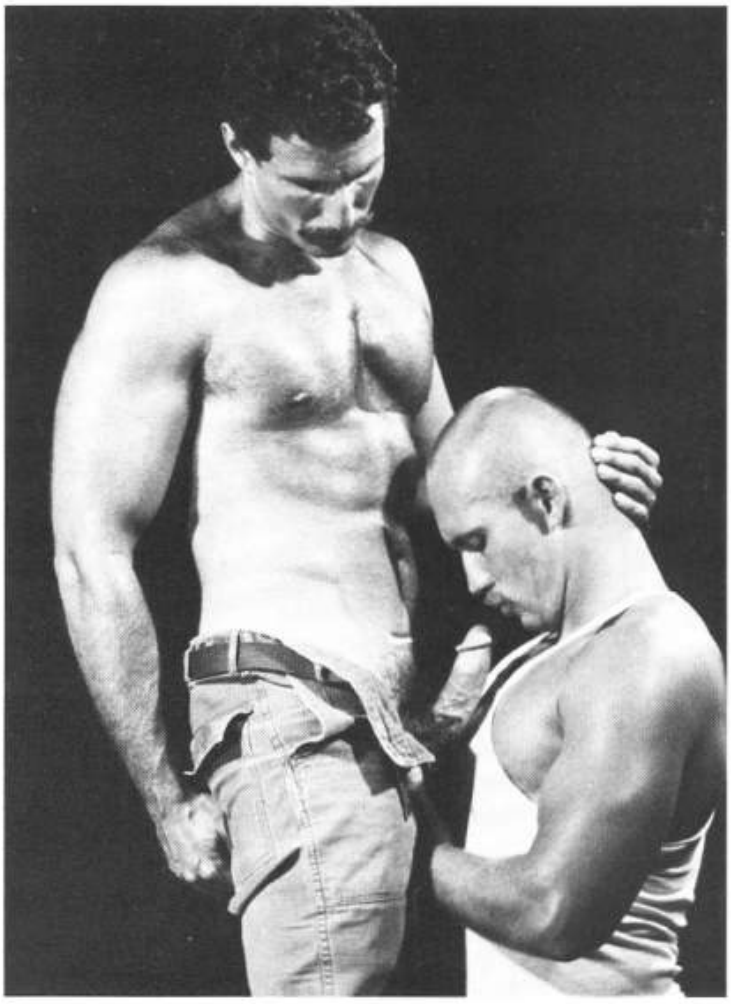
The hot gamey smell underneath and around balls makes many want to suck, lick and moisten them with their mouths, tasting that distinctive male flavor. Sacs are inviting, with their surrounding pubic hairs jutting out, waiting to be consumed. And consume you will want to do, jostling balls in your mouth, rubbing gums on them, and feeling their heat; you'll be driven wild from passion.

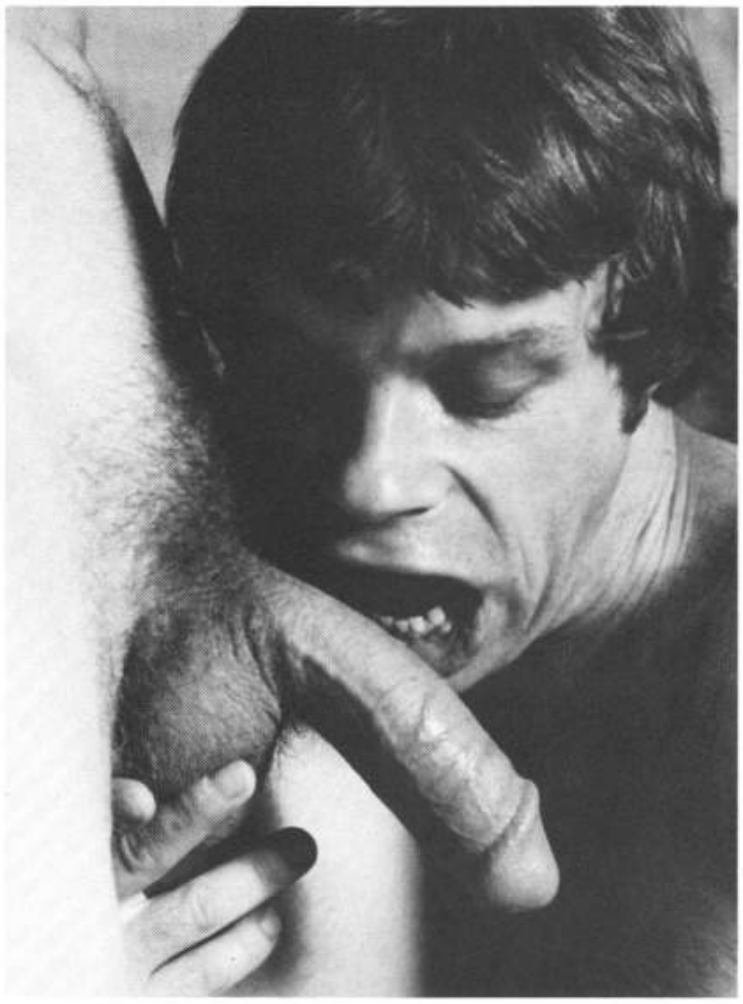


Traveling from the balls, the tongue slides to the base of the cock. You finally have arrived at the meat of the matter. Taking cock in mouth wil make your partner shiver with erotic chills, as tongue is run along base and up shaft until the pinnacle is reached. The beauty and taste of dick!

MAN TO MAN POSITIONS

ORAL SEX





The cock stands erect waiting to be abused, enjoyed and swallowed. Some get turned on by the pulsating veins just millimeters from their eyes, others by the hardness of the erection. Whatever your choice, mouthfucking will satisfy it. When two partners suck each others cocks and shoot their hot chunky cum into their throats, the ultimate in cocksucking has been reached.

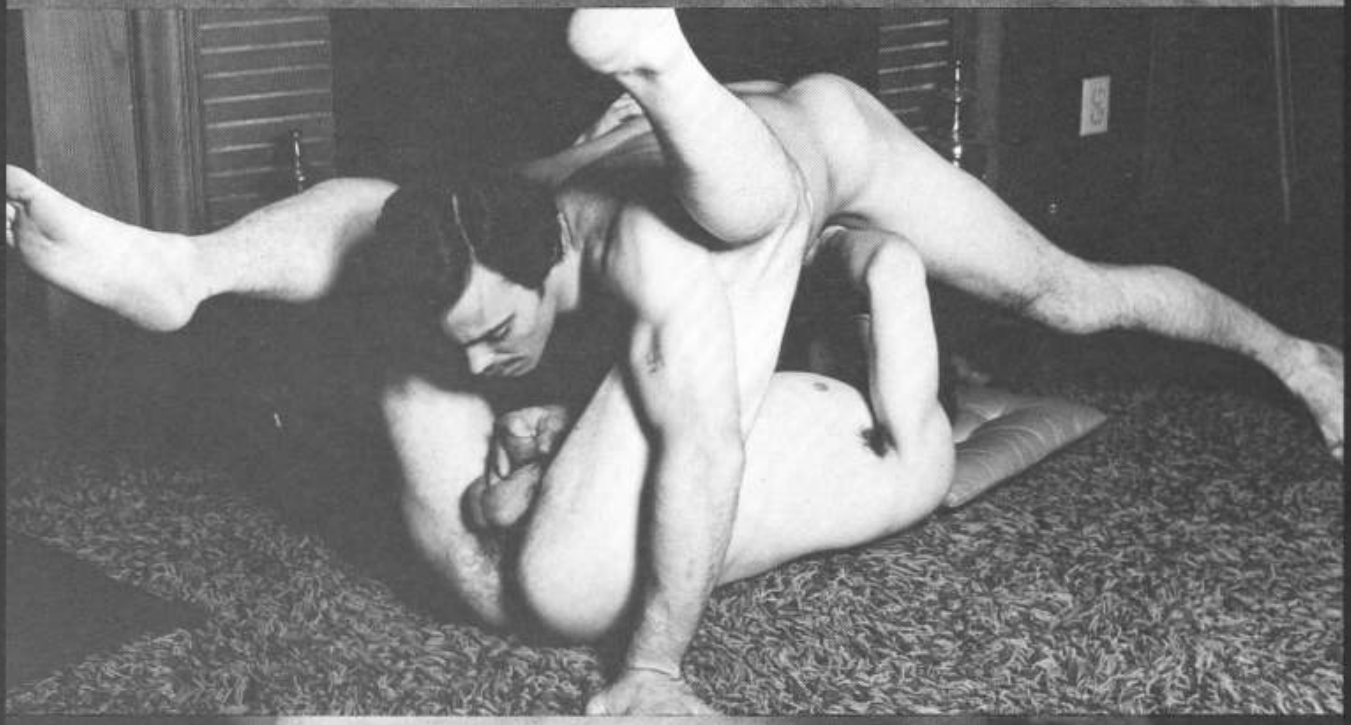
69'ing completes our section on oral action. Mutual fellatio is by far the most pleasing for both you and your partner. It's the best of both worlds: you get to indulge in your partners dick, and at the same time, your life force is milked, stirring juices in you you thought you never had. Creaming in each other's mouth is the height of ecstasy.



ANAL PLEASURES

It's just as good to give, as it is to receive the favors of the union of cock and ass. Called doggie style, sitting on it, from the side, or on your back, stomach, or any array of positions, it's fucking the tightest hole known to man. The active partner can be on the bottom as well as on top. Sexual excitement tingles both ends of the spectrum.

The asshole is lubricated to provide easy insertion. This can be applied by the loving tongue, as spit is the most natural lubricant known. The probing tongue can suck and lick the male cavity voraciously. This eating out should excite both partners tremendously, one loving to bury his nose, lips and tongue in the beckoning asshole, and the other enjoying the tingling sensation that ripples from his hole up through his bulging balls, stopping only at the tip of his rod, in breathless anticipation of the final shoot.

After the saliva lubrication, the ass is primed for something harder and thicker than a tongue. The coarse hands of a man are any man's delight, especially when they are up his ass. The fingers of the exploring partner push, pull and widen that luscious plaything . . . the ass. As he force pumps his finger through the asshole, his partner at the same time relaxes his muscle, arches his back, and spirals that finger around his hole teasing his prostate gland, knowing that the finger isn't going to be enough to satisfy his full appetite—he NEEDS that COCK up his rear too. The finger is the manipulative prelude to the true power.

The cock is the driving force of man, the true symbol of his burgeoning power. When cock is inserted, ass and cock become one, and the strength and magnetism of these two as one arouses such sexual desires that the gods themselves could not subdue them. Some prefer the slow penetrative approach, feeling the layers of skin melting together, with the cockhead reaching for that bait at the end of the shaft: the prostate. While others like to ram the rod, driving and pumping deep into the dark hole. The rhythm builds after the initial insert, with the hips, pelvis, and backs of the two partners undulating and grinding, as each thrust of penis in ass turns beads of sweat and male aromas into a slippery olfactorious heaven. FUCK . . . FUCK . . . FUCK . . . stick that dick up there!
